THE MYSTERIES SERIES - MYSTERIES IN PARIS

By Alain Surget & Louis Alloing

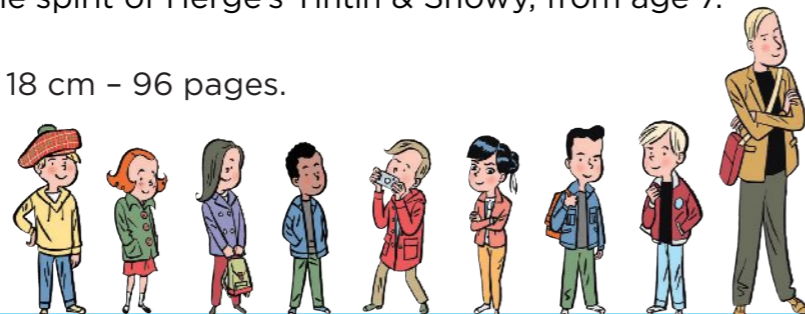

Alex Moury and his class are headed for the French Capital. Visits to museums, walks in the city, strolls along the banks of the Seine... But no sooner have they arrived in the “City of Light” than strange things happen : eyes, a finger and an ear get stolen from works of art in various places. By a curious coincidence, the class systematically finds itself at the scene of the crimes. This attracts the attention of the police...

Could there be a connection between the presence of the children and these strange thefts?
